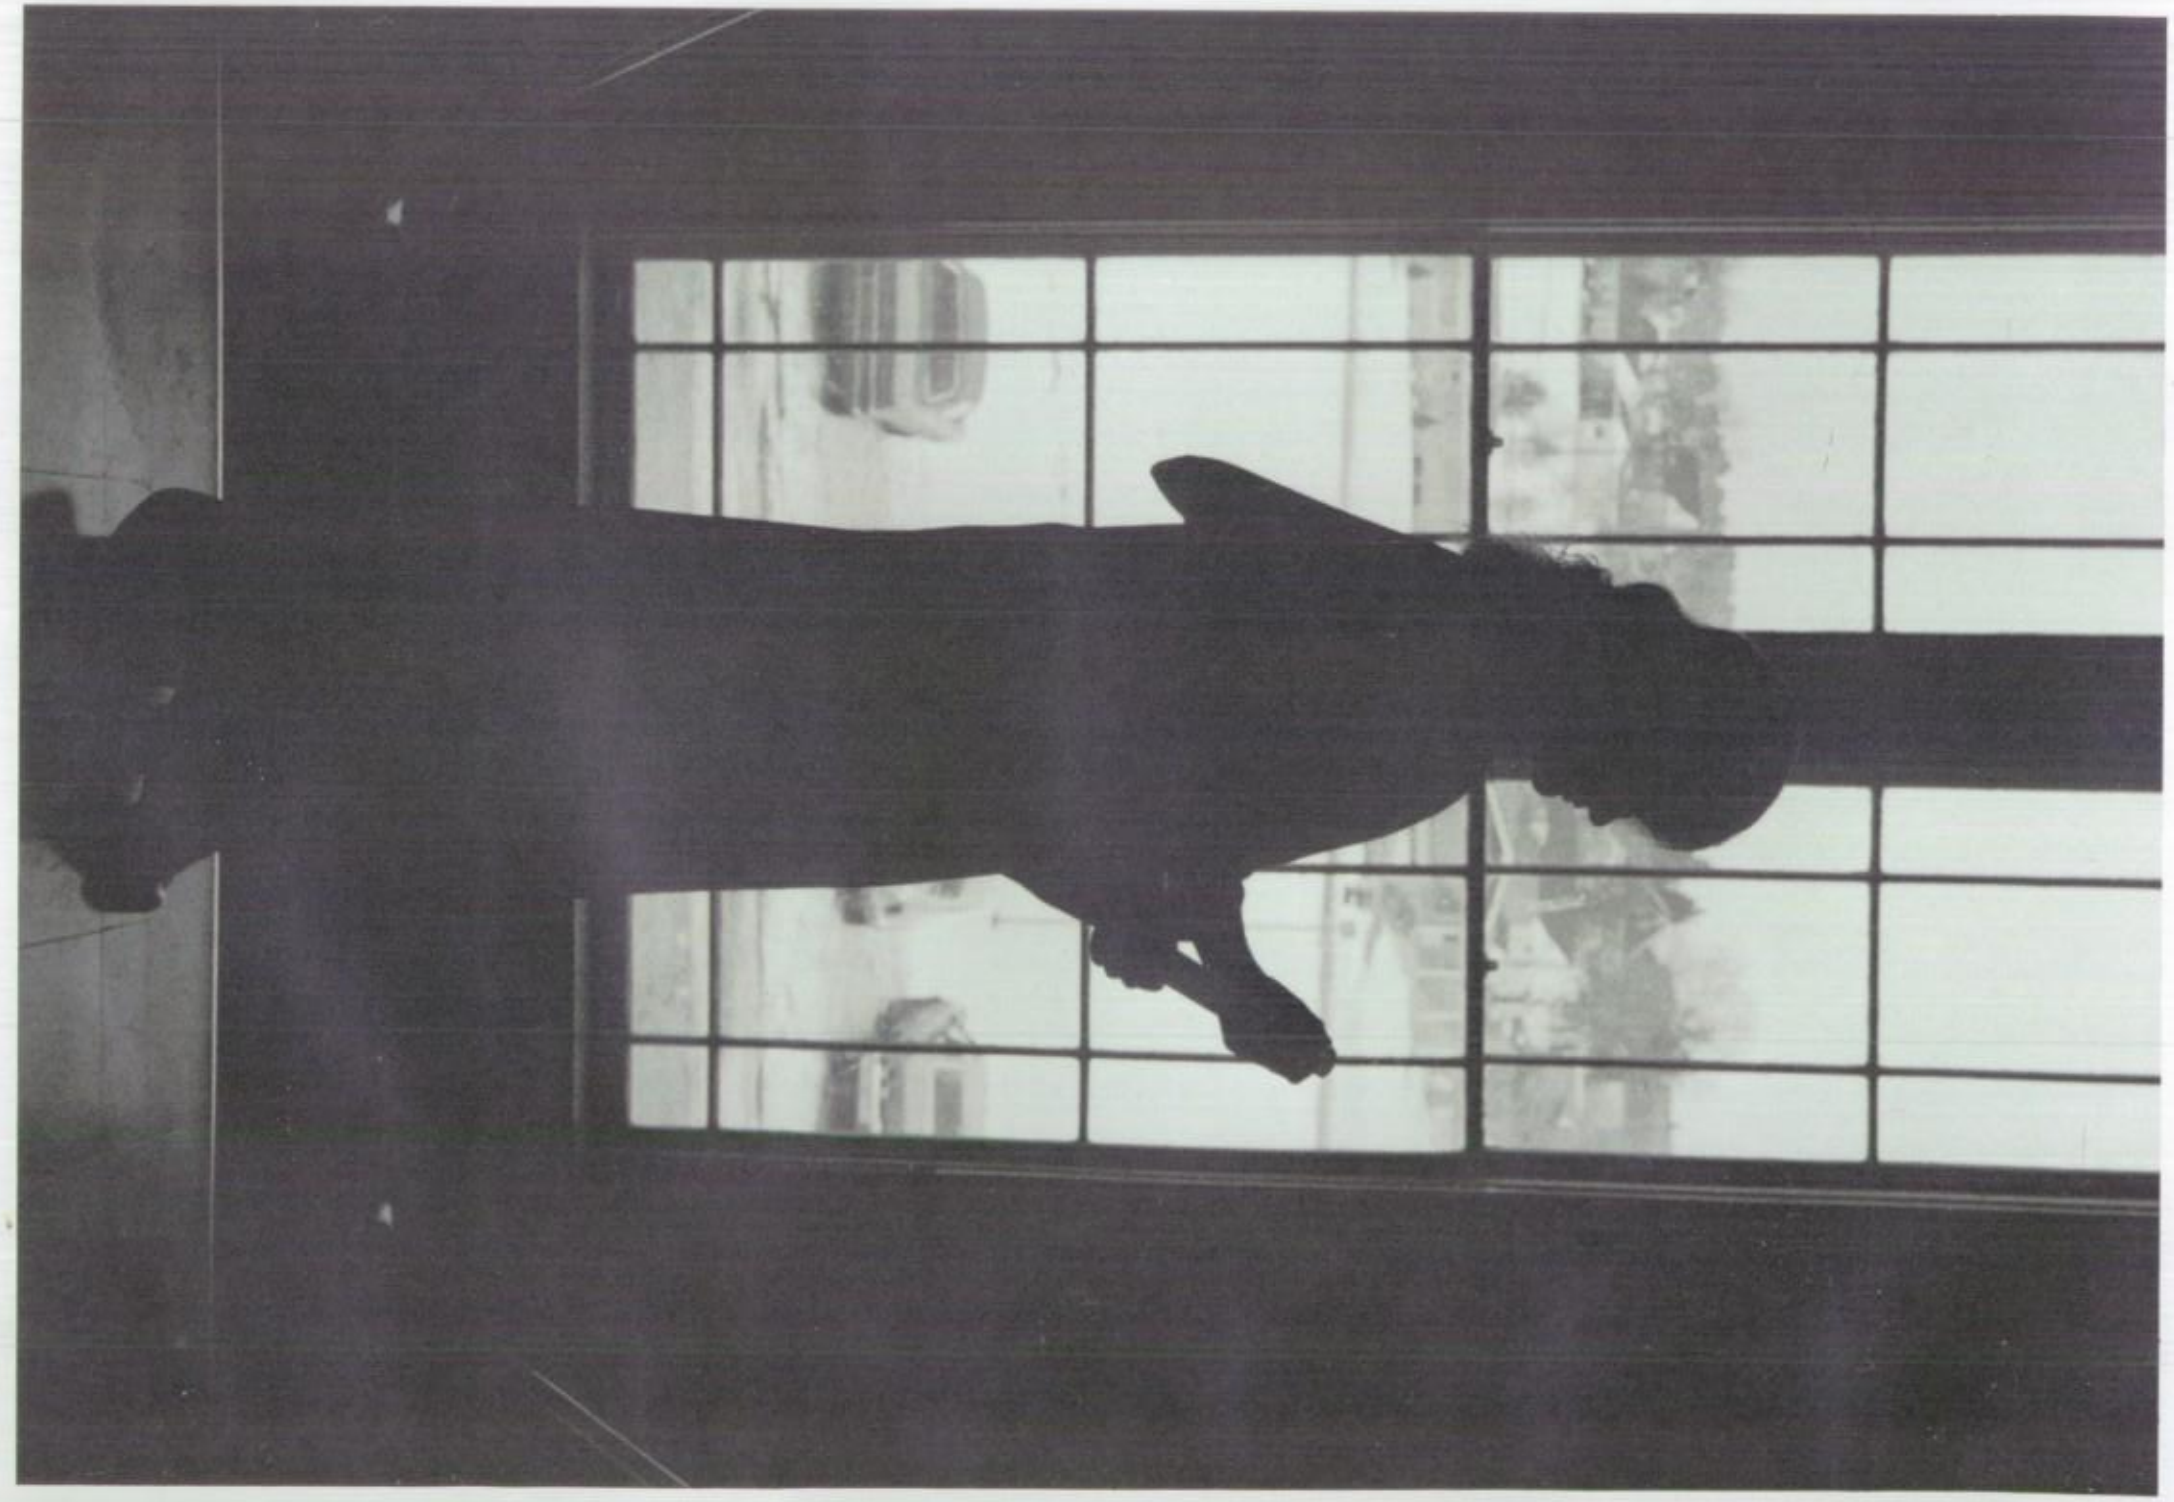
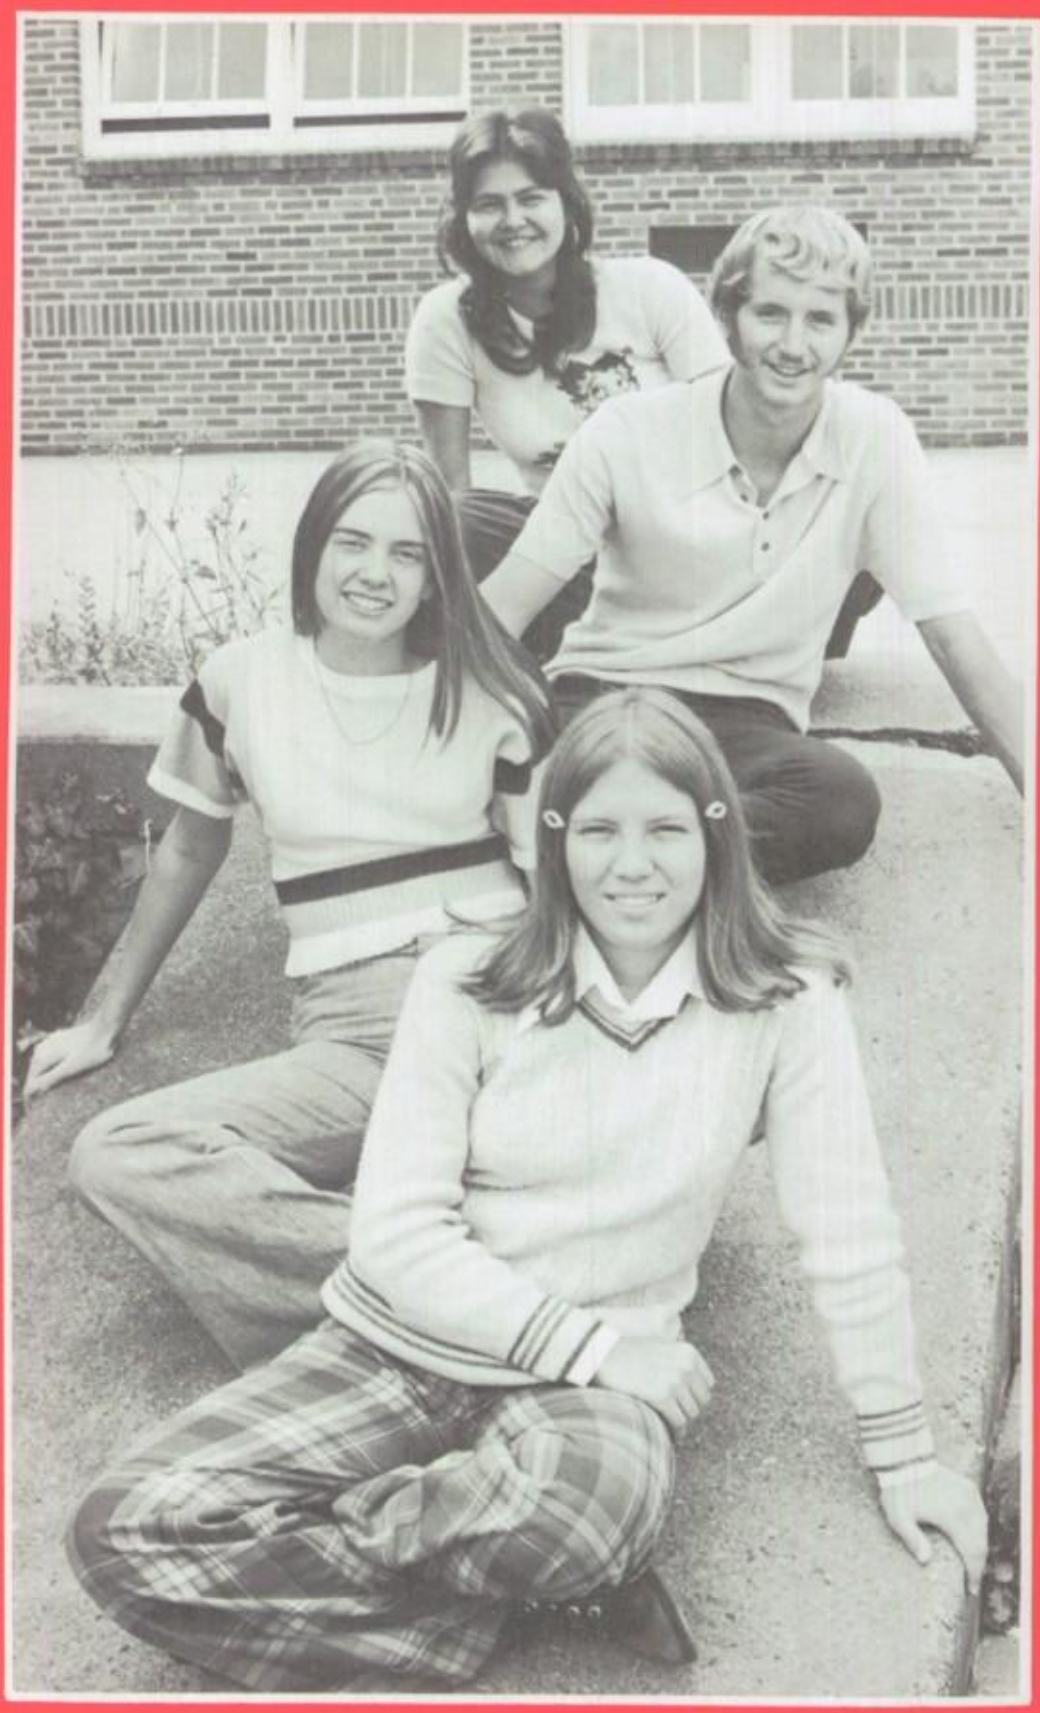
SHOES



Our class has been noted for working hard and getting things done. We have proven this by the success of all the projects we have undertaken. The start of our success came with our magazine campaign in our Freshman year. "Starlit Snowfall", our Sophomore Christmas Dance came next, followed by our Junior Class Play, TAKE YOUR MEDICINE and THE CUSTARD CAPER our Senior Class Play. Our greatest achievement came with our Junior-Senior Prom—"We May Never Pass This Way Again". Our Valentines Dance, in our Senior year ended our dance-making career. To Mr. Volk, Mr. Shank, Miss Tinkle, and Mrs. Litzinger, our class deans, goes a special thanks for all their time, guidance, and patience that helped make our class the success it was.



All smiles because it's finally coming to an end are the Senior Class Officers.

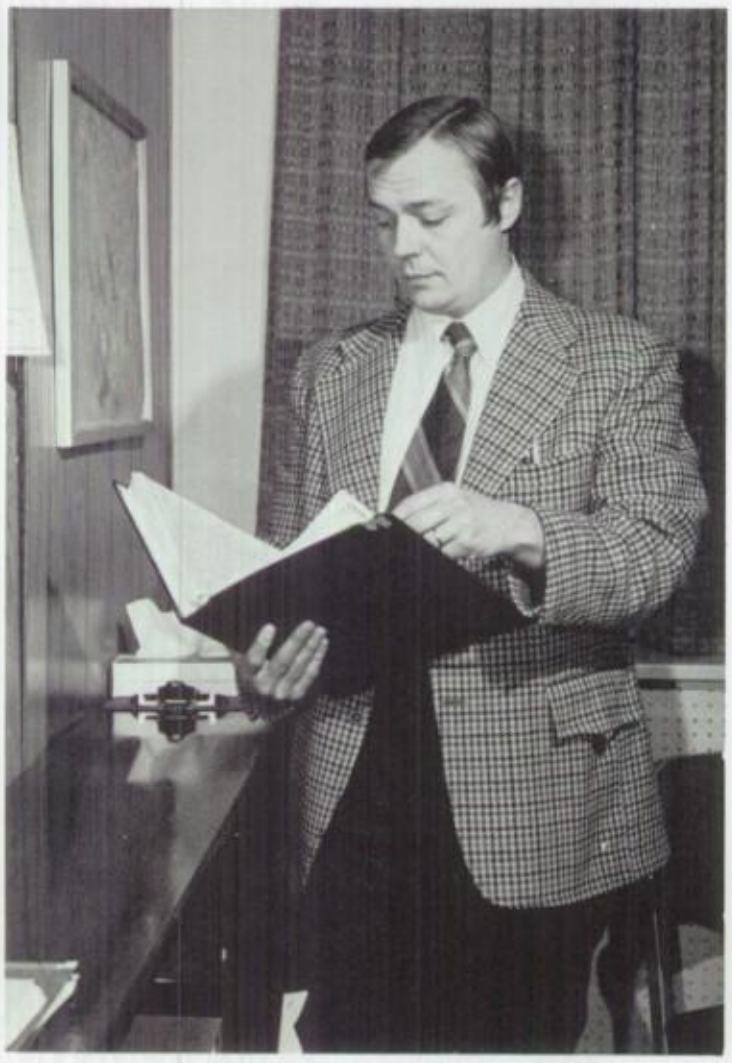
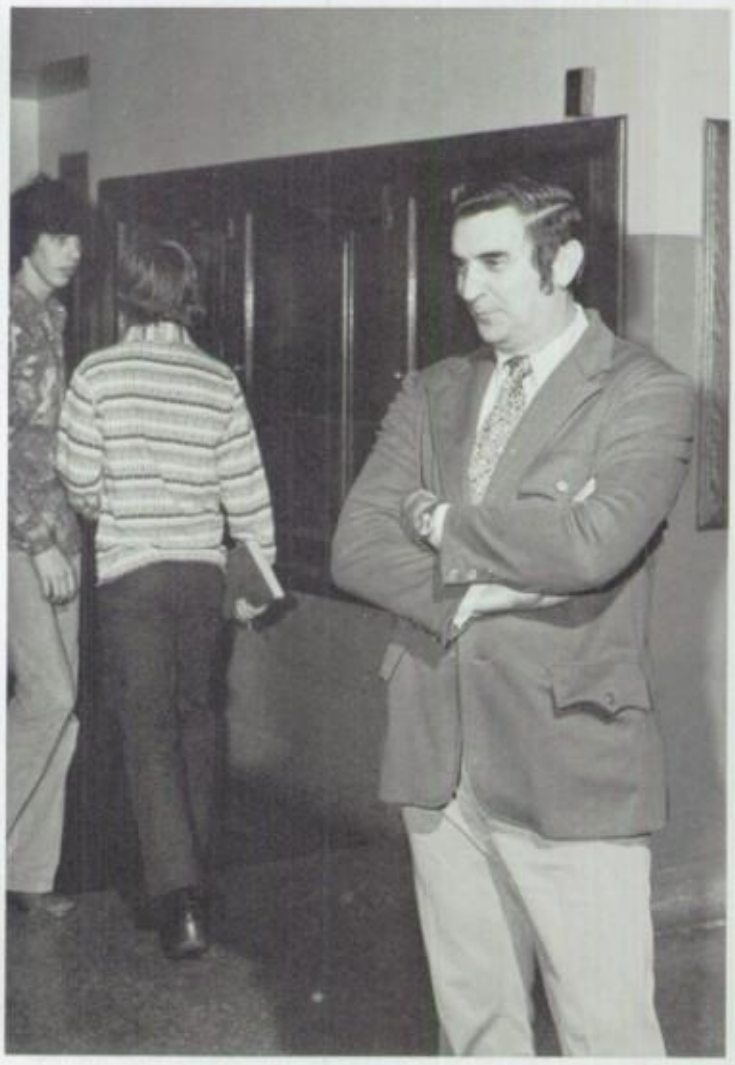
Spirit of '76

As our Senior Class of '76 leaves Conemaugh Township Area High School, our nation is in the midst of its bicentennial celebration. Americans are fondly looking back on their past two-hundred years much the same way our Senior Class is looking back on their recent twelve years. In comparing the two, many similarities between the class of '76 and America with its spirit of '76 become obvious. Both are young; two-hundred years is quite young for a nation. As our country expands and grows, so will the class of '76. Important decisions that will affect their futures will soon be faced by both our class and our nation. Within their own short histories they both hold many treasured memories that will live on long after the bicentennial becomes history. This yearbook is based on a few of these treasured memories. Not the events that fill the pages of history books, but the small, finer points of our colorful history-trivia. Simple little events that made the good times the "good times." Fond memories are made up of trivial events, whether it be the past two-hundred years of a nation or the twelve unforgettable years of our Class of '76.

Class of '76

ADMIN





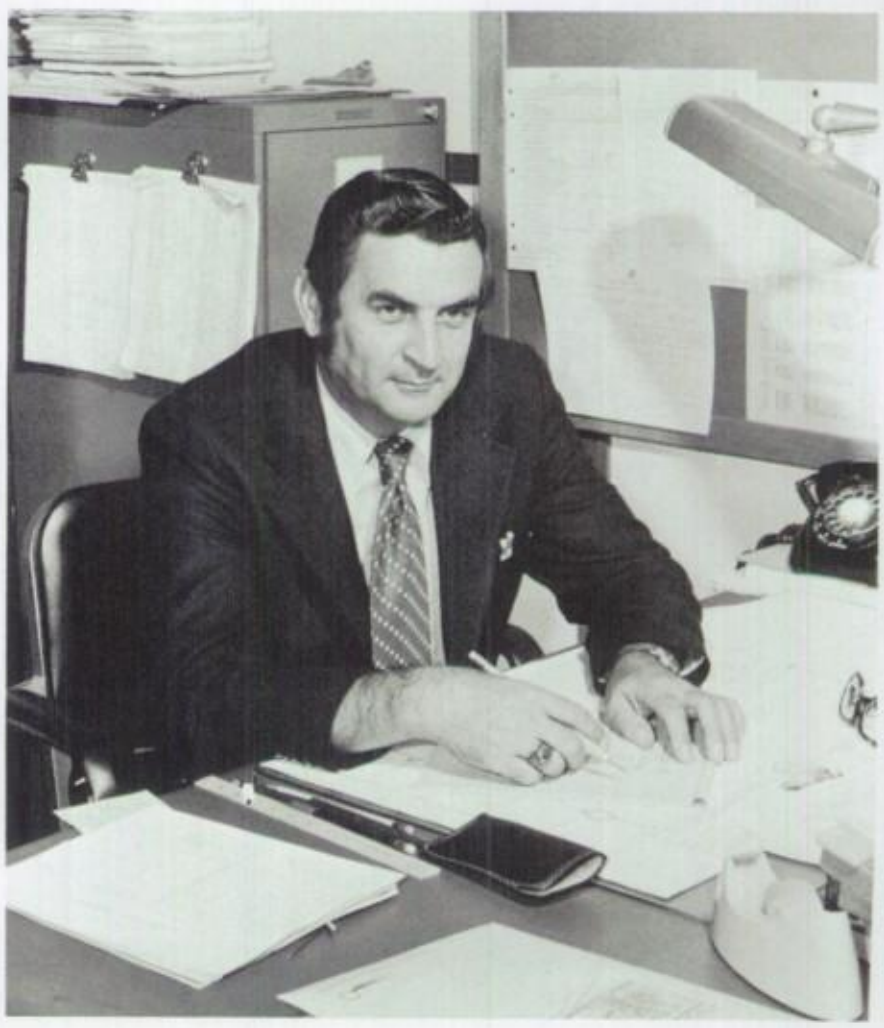
Main Office

I know this combination unlocks one of these; but which one!—MRS. MARGARET THOMAS, secretary.

Look who just walked through my door.—MR. JAMES L. HERDMAN, High School Principal.

Money is the root of all evil!—MISS LOIS WILLIAMSON, secretary.

Guess who just got two demerits?—MR. RICHARD M. MATEY, Assistant High School Principal.



MR. HERDMAN and LOIS work hard to make things run smoothly here at school.

Here it is! the latest fashion from Paris—MR. MATEY and MARGARET

Holy cow, that's the biggest seventh grader I ever saw!—MR. THOMAS BROWN, junior high guidance counselor.

There is no problem too little or too small that MRS. BARBARA KORHUT can't handle. Mrs. Korhut is our senior high guidance counselor.

One whole page and no mistakes!—MRS. JEAN GINDLESBERGER is Mr. Brown's and Mrs. Korhut's secretary.

This is the third time this week your Edsel has broken down, I'll have to mark it unexcused—MRS. NANCY THOMAS, school nurse.

Conemaugh Township's School Board: Mr. William C. Pebley, Jr.; Mr. John P.K. Miller, Vice President; Attorney Eugene Fike II, School board solicitor; Mr. Robert J. Valentine, President; Mr. John M. Chobany. District Superintendent; Mr. Charles R. Pipta; Mr. Micheal B. Springer, Secretary; Mr. Wayne A. Kauffman. Absent when picture was taken were Robert A. Jones, Treasurer; Geza Balog; William M. Degory.

Mr. John Chobany, District Superintendent. Mr. Chobany is now marking his tenth year here at our Reservation.

Mr. Chobany's right hand woman, more commonly called his secretary, is Miss Deborah Telenko. This is her fourth year in this position.

Here a Pipta, there a Pipta, everywhere another Pipta. Here's two of them, Rob and his Dad, Mr. Charles R. Pipta, a member of our school board.

Completing his third year as the Administrative Assistant to Mr. Chobany is Mr. Robert F. Harris.

This is Mr. Harris' faithful secretary, none other than Mrs. Nancy Stahl, who is now in her second year here at CTAHS.

Can you make any sense out of this? Mrs. Nancy Golish asks Mrs. Ruth Kiem. Mrs. Golish is Mrs. Kiem's secretary, who is the business office manager. Both have worked here at Conemaugh Township for six years.

Bicentennial Notes

Please Mrs. Kemp, not so hard! It's a drum, not a choir member! MUSIC DEPARTMENT—Mrs. Kemp and Mr. Salay.

These men can tell you anything you want to know about social studies. SOCIAL STUDIES DEPARTMENT—(L-R) Row One: Mr. O'Connor; Mr. Fuller; and dept. head, Mr. Major. Row Two: Mr. Eash; Mr. Mathews; Mr. Kirkwood; Mr. Pristas; and Mr. Horne.

LANGUAGE DEPARTMENT—(L-R) Seated: Miss Tinkle; Miss Pelesky; Mrs. Kogut; and Mrs. Allen. Standing: Mr. Paxton; Mr. Salko; Mr. Bianco; Miss Owatt; Mrs. Leech; and Mrs. McFeaters. Not present when picture taken—Mr. Vizzini.

Don't move or the wall will fall. SCIENCE DEPARTMENT—Mr. Duncan and Mr. Hemphill. Not present when picture was taken—Mr. Bridgewater; Mr. Michaels, dept. head; and Mr. Williams.

"—?e=mc!H O—; CO ;??"

Always Ready To Lend A Hand

Township's very "at home" Home Ec teachers.—Mrs. Good and Mrs. Hargreaves

Here are three good reasons why Township kids are in such good health– Mr. Badaczewski, Mrs. Ickes, and Mr. Garland

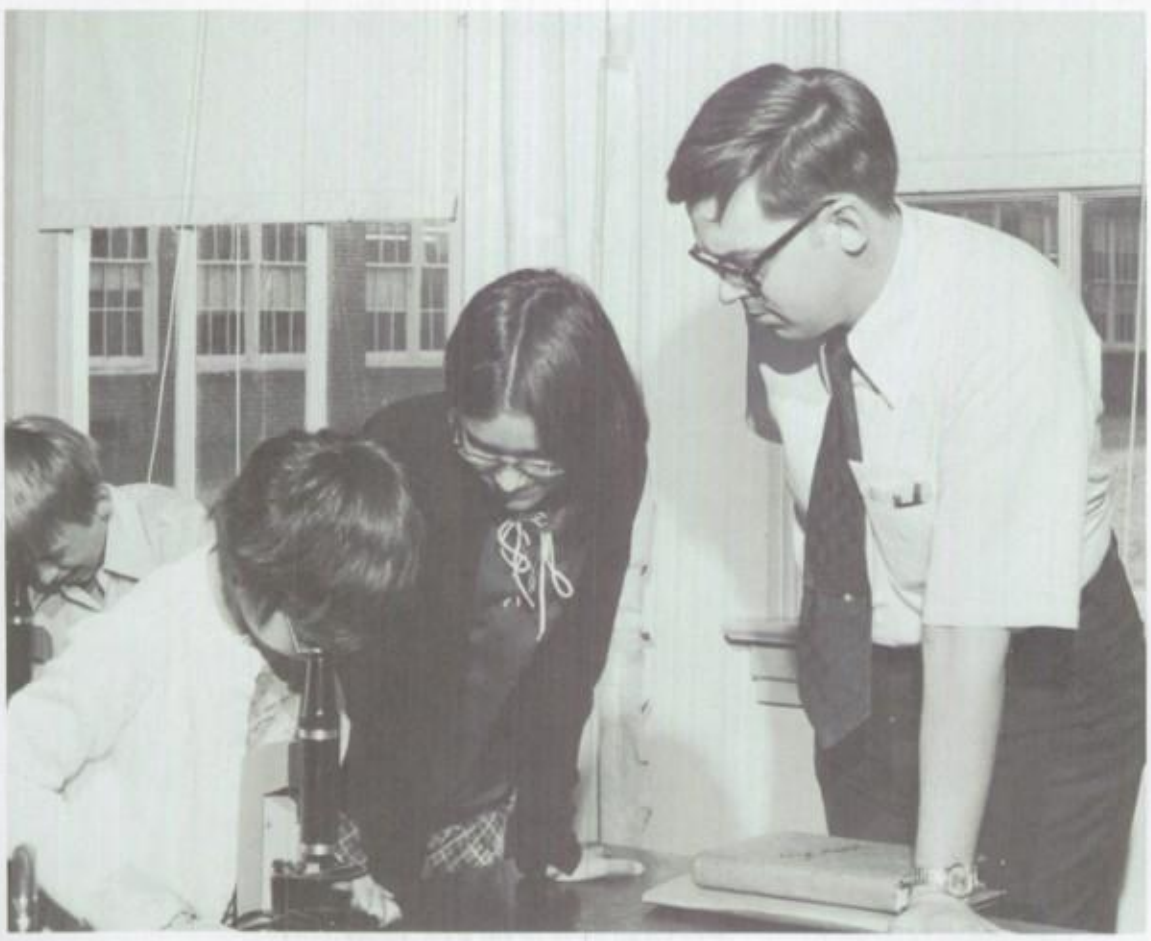
Don't you guys have anything better to do? Our industrious, Industrial Arts teachers—Mr. Kososki, Mr. McFeaters, Mr. Grillo, Mr. Burnworth, and Mr. Rummel

No, I'm afraid we don't have a course in business embezzlement, BUSINESS DEPARTMENT — (L-R): Mrs. Statler, dept. head; Mr. Volk: Mrs. Clark; and Mrs. Siehl.

Three roses among three thorns. MATH DEPARTMENT (L-R): Mrs. Mahler; Mr. Ricotta; Miss Leppert; Mr. Goisovich; Mrs. Litzinger; and the dept. head, Mr. Debiase.

In keeping with the bicentennial spirit, the P.O. sports a huge "76"

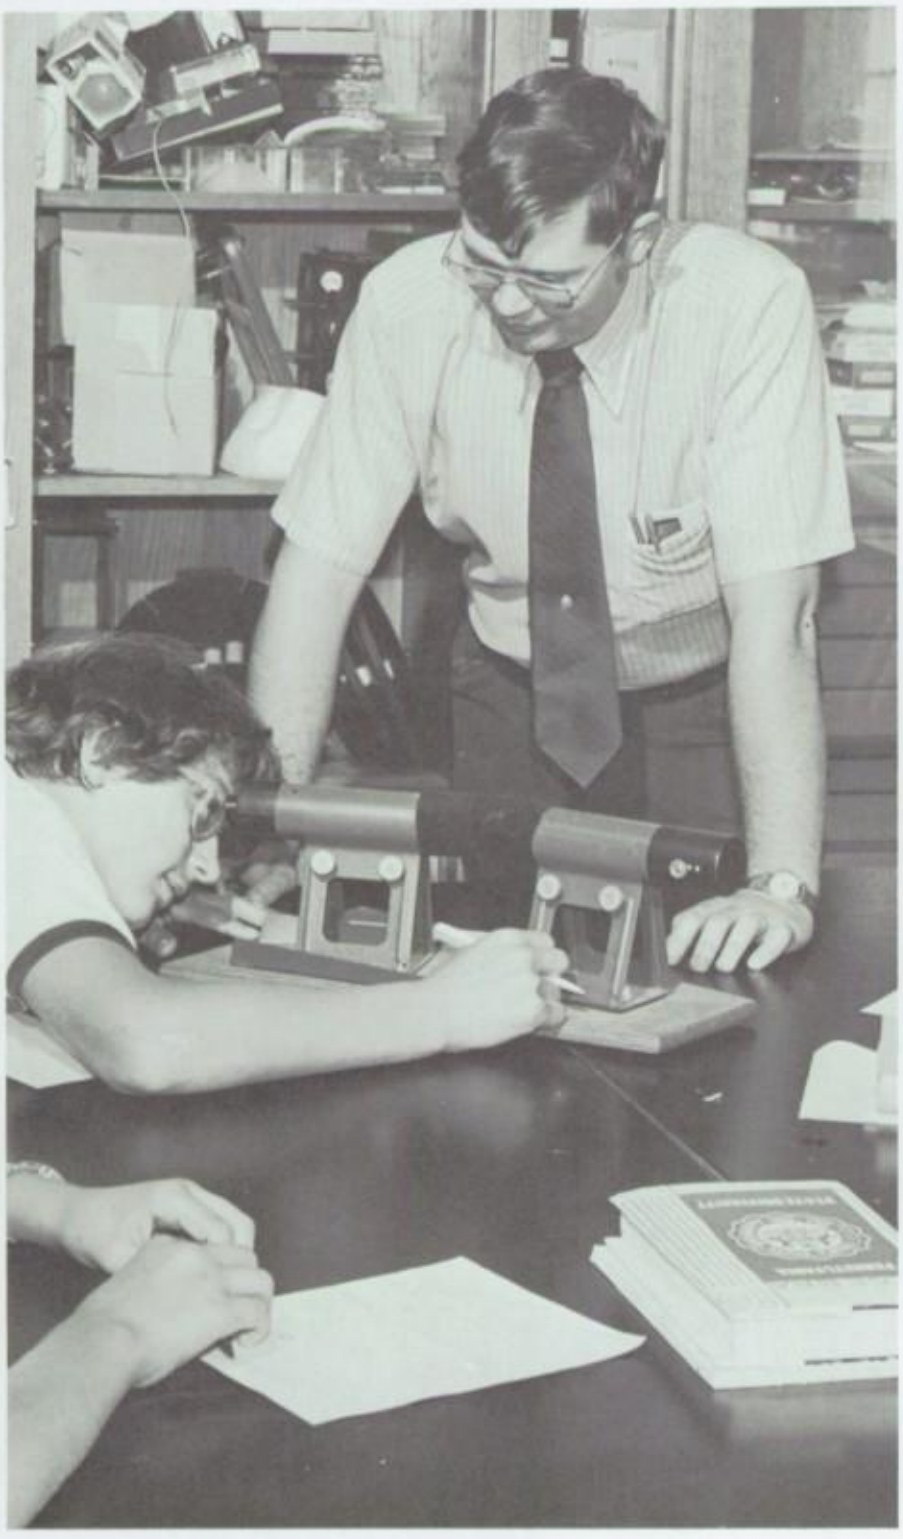
The Wizards Of Menlo Park? Not Quite!



Joahnna, it helps if you turn on the light.—Mr. Bridgewater

I know the answer is here someplace!—Mr. Michaels

Anyone in the "old coffeehouse" will tell you it tastes best.—Mr. Hemphill



Heaven only knows what will happen when a bunch like Tammy, Pauline, and John get together!

Phil, you'd better be doing this right!—Mr. Duncan

Work Now For A Job Tomorrow

I sure hope that bee doesn't come this way!—Mrs. Clark

In early America, horsepower ran sawmills, tanbark mills, paint mills, grist-mills, threshing mills, even machinery for operating ferryboats!

Ice cream is early American! It was sold by Mr. Hall in New York City in 1785, but George Washington bought a newly invented "ice cream machine" in 1784.

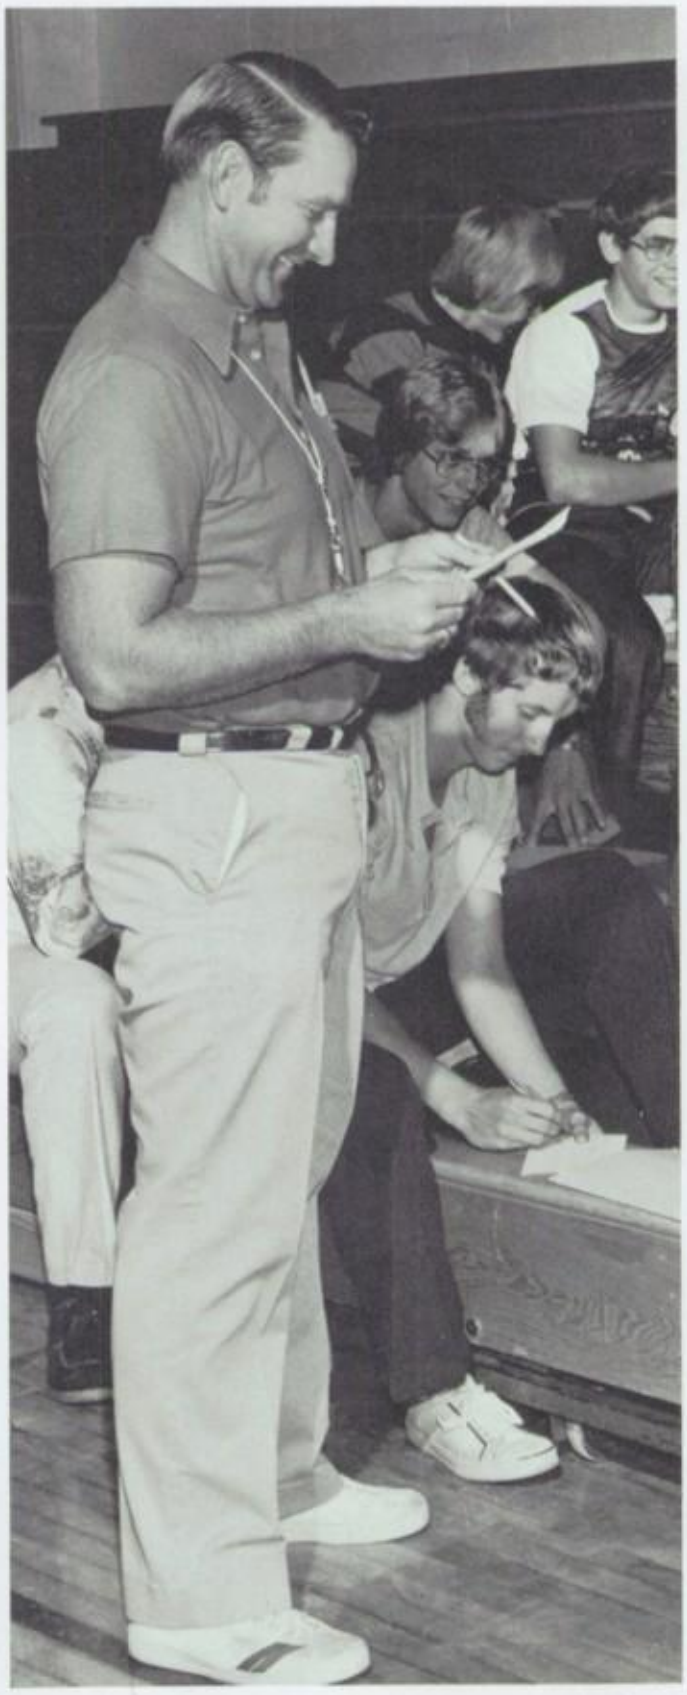
Modeling the newest fall fashion.—Mr. Volk

God Bless America! Kate Smith, eat your heart out.—Mrs. Statler

Shouldn't the flag be more to the right?—Mrs. Siehl

Anyone For A Drive Or A Jog?

Small jokes help keep the class alive.—Mr. Garland



Evaluate your "Physical" ability.—Mr. Badaczewski

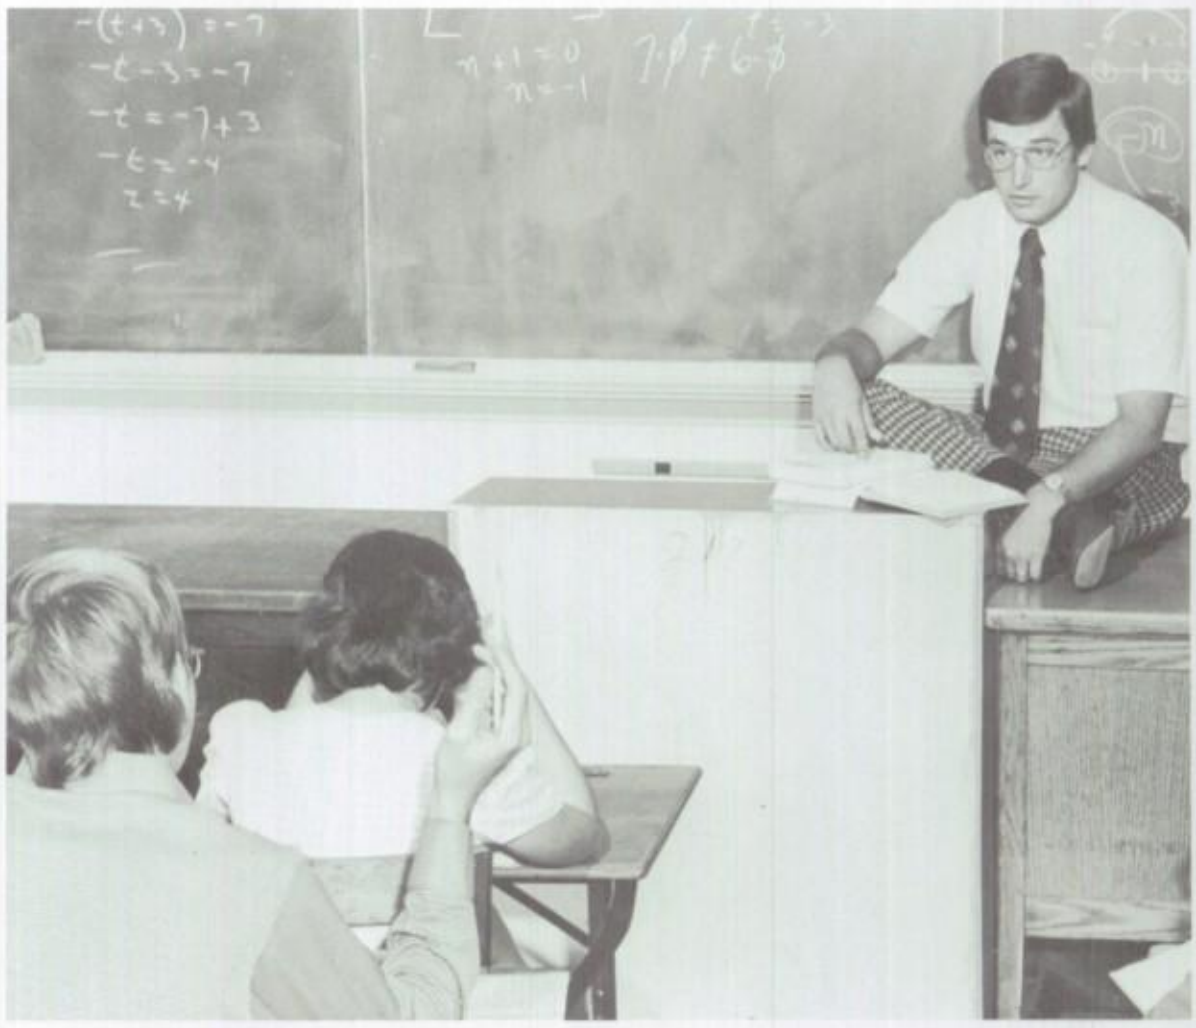
Sandy, whenever you remove your hand from Rhonda's knee, I'll look at you again.—Mrs. Ickes

Mr. Debiase And His Magnificent Math Department

Early America drank more cider than water. Apples were ground, made into a mash, then folded in layers and squeezed into a juice.

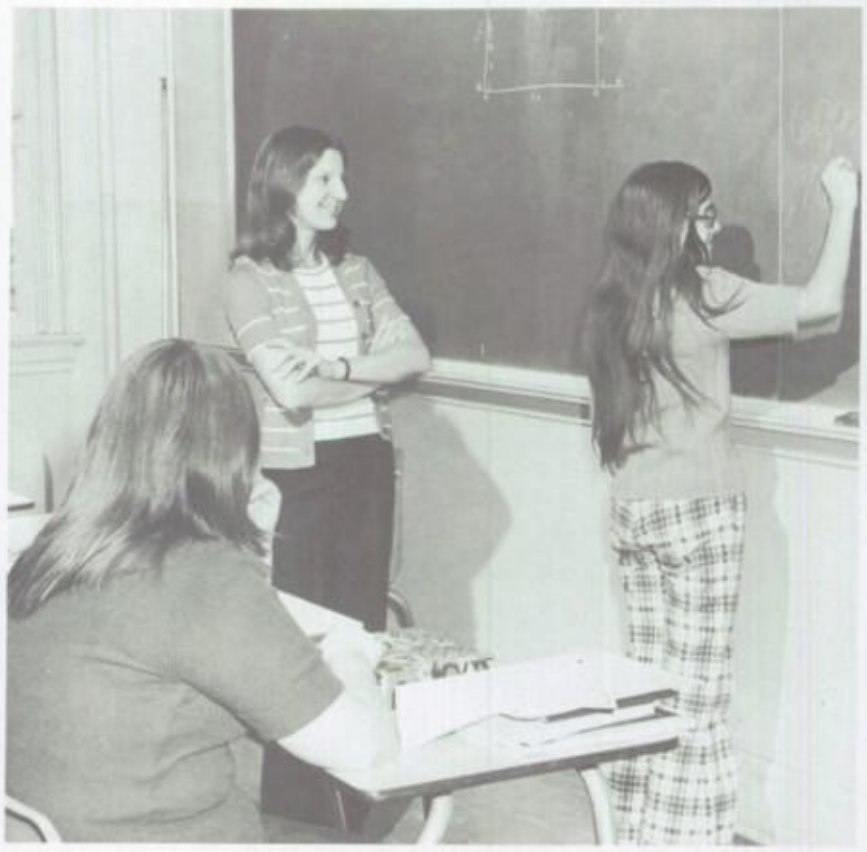
The first indoor plumbing bathtubs were made in the U.S.A. Lead lined, some tubs weighed half a ton, and were seven feet long.

The first early American dolls were made of cornhusks, tied with vines, and dyed with berry juice. They were copies of Indian dolls.



Who knows what a meditating teacher might do!—Mr. Debiase

Giving some last minute help to these students before the test.—Mrs. Litizinger



If I only had a calculator.—Miss Mahler

Hurry up and take the picture, I think my pants are burning.—Mr. Goisovich

Miss Leppert spent the first semester at CTAHS while Mr. Svarney was on sabbatical leave.

Teaching the "Bear" necessities of math.—Mr. Riccota

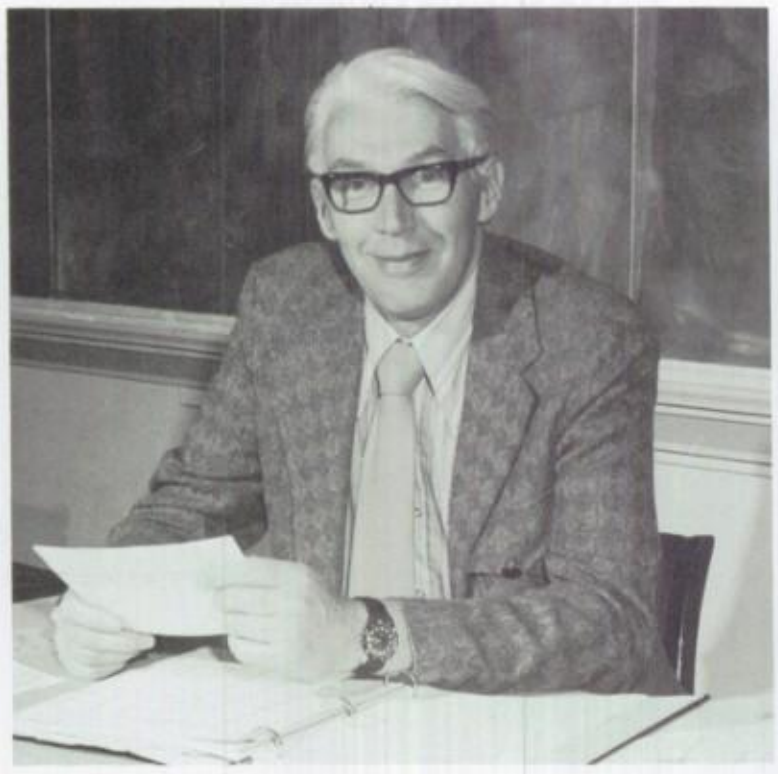
The first American almanac was printed in 1639, it was the farmer's most popular reading matter. There are over a 1,000 kinds of almanacs today.

Chop suey is not Chinese but American, being invented in 1896 in New York City.

Only six hundred years ago, candy was a verb meaning "to preserve with sugar." When you ate "candy" it was raw sugar scissored from a loaf.

Once a military item (taken from "defense"), the fence was made a farm object. Europe used hedges, but our abundance of wood made fencing an American art.

Today's Subject Is Pronouns



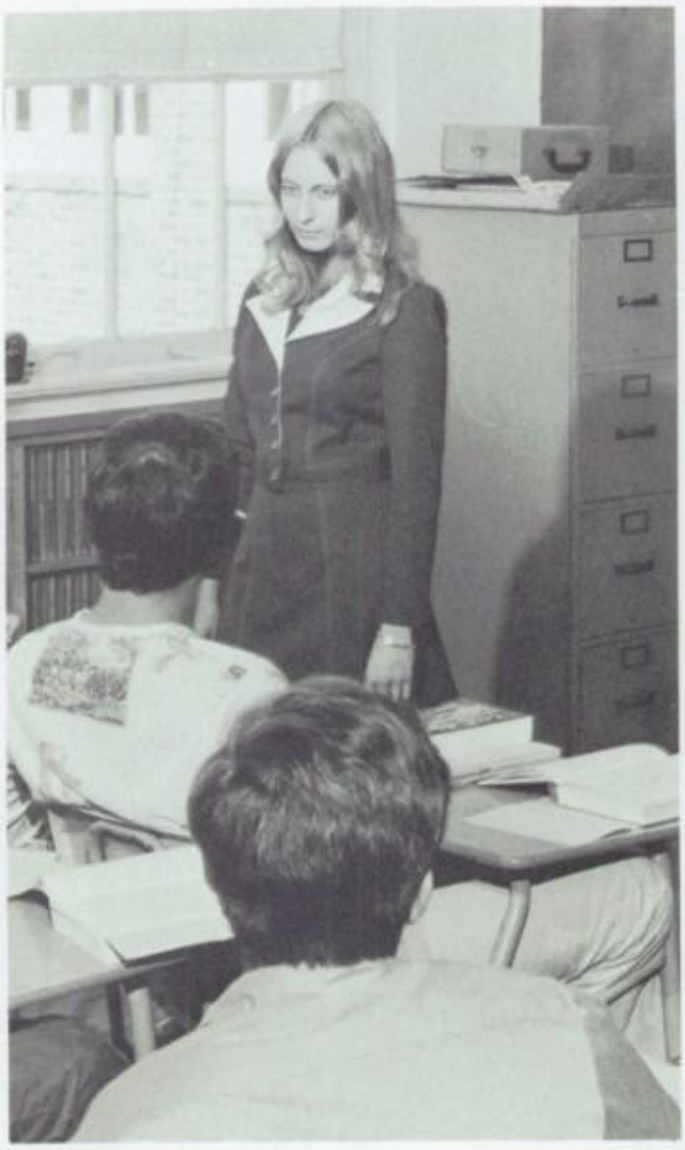
Who knows what thoughts lurk in the minds of this ruddy ol' chap.—Mr. Paxton

The Three Musketeers unveil their plans for a high school addition.—Madame Mac

We will now have a moment of silence for tonight's girls' basketball game.—Miss Pelesky

The Mad Hatter strikes in Spanish class.—Miss Tinkle

Theirs no exkuse for mispeled words.—Mr. Bianco



John, I don't find that the least bit funny.—Mrs. Leech

O.K. people, from now on my rifle club will get to the "hearts" of unresponding pupils.—Mr. Salko

The extremely accurate Kentucky rifle had a barrel over four feet long. The rifle was not made in Kentucky, but in Pennsylvania.

The Conestoga wagon of 1760 was the world's "finest wagon." It had wide tires, a tent-like living space, and a boatlike wagon-body.

Annoyed at carrying two sets of glasses, in 1785 Benjamin Franklin split a pair in two and made the first pair of bifocal glasses.

Before 1839 all mail was on one sheet. Letters were just folded over and sealed. The first manufacturer of envelopes was a Mr. Pearson who began making them in 1839 in New York.

An early American measuring device was the ell-rule. Now completely forgotten, the ell was a yard and one quarter or 45 inches, used mostly for cloth.

I wonder why OUR layouts didn't turn out like that?—Miss Owatt

Does the 'G' mean he was a writer of graffiti, too?—Mrs. Kogut

The newest member of our faculty.—Mrs. Ross

Buttering up the teacher with Buttercups? . . . no, but any flowers will do.—Mrs. Allen

Ever have one of those days? I lost the band.—Mr. Salay

And that should give you 6 demerits now, right Smitty? —Mrs. Kemp

Maybe we should have washed them by hand.—Mrs. Hargreaves.

Well Lynn, I think we blew it.—Mrs. Good

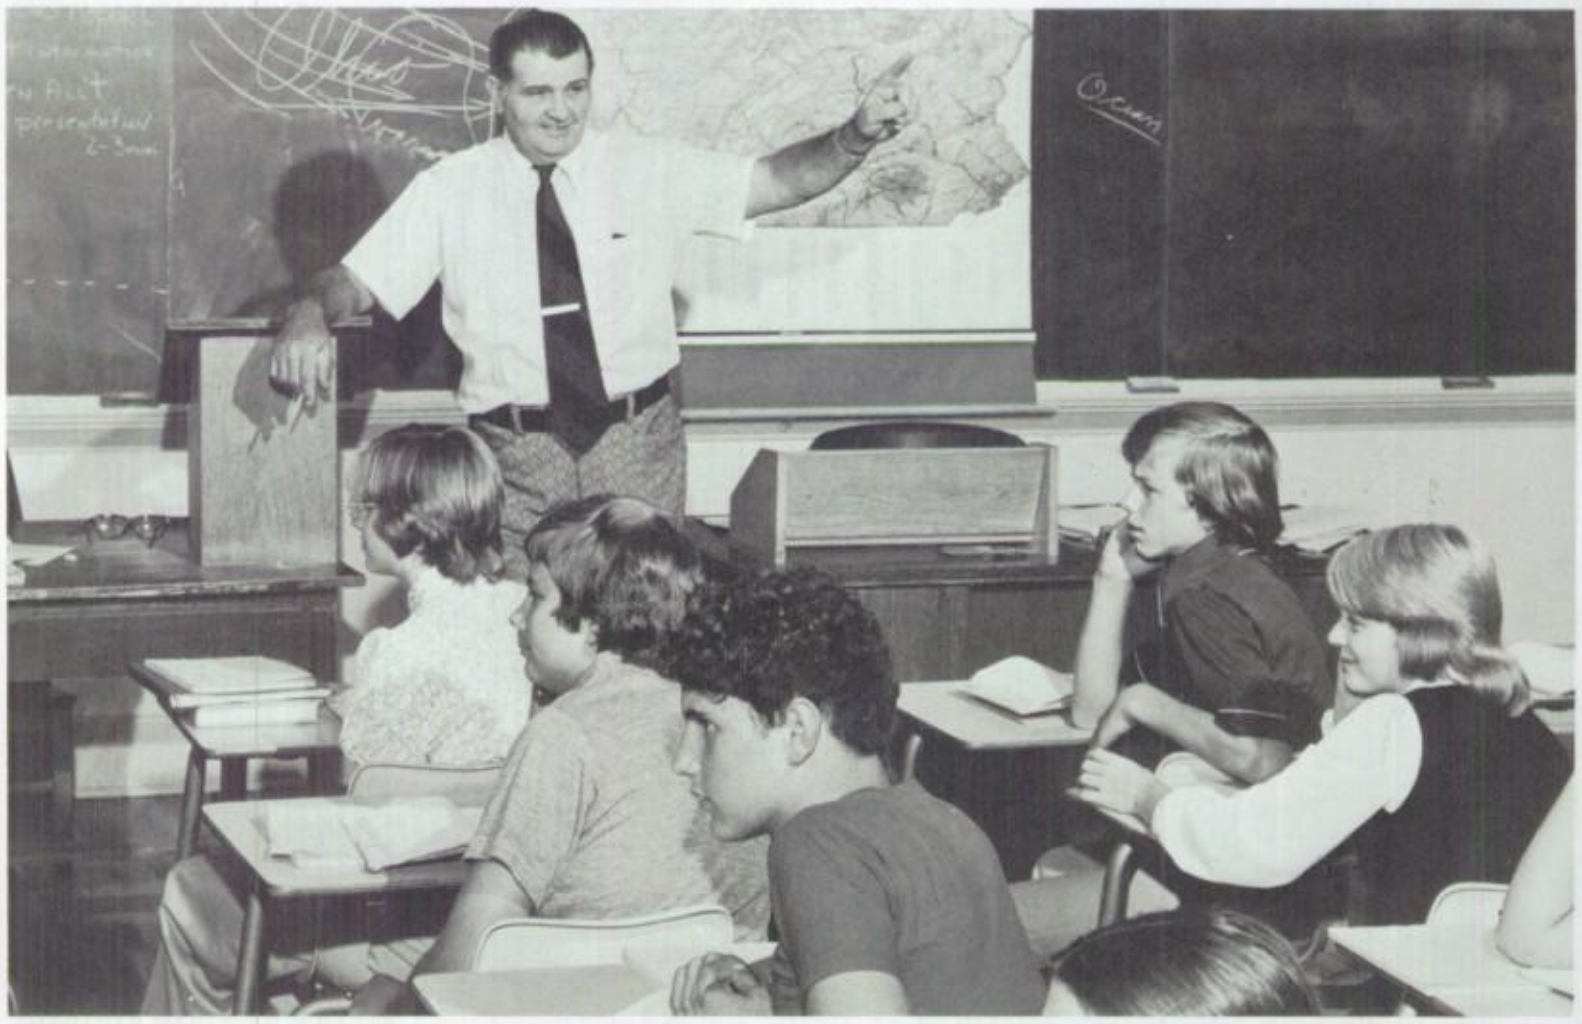
I hope that tape wasn't important; I just erased it.—Mrs. Cable

Let Social Studies Take You

I wonder if this is how Chief Sitting Bull felt?—Mr. Major

The world's really a big blue marble.—Mr. Fuller

Go ahead and ignore me, but just wait until you get your grade.—Mr. O'Connor



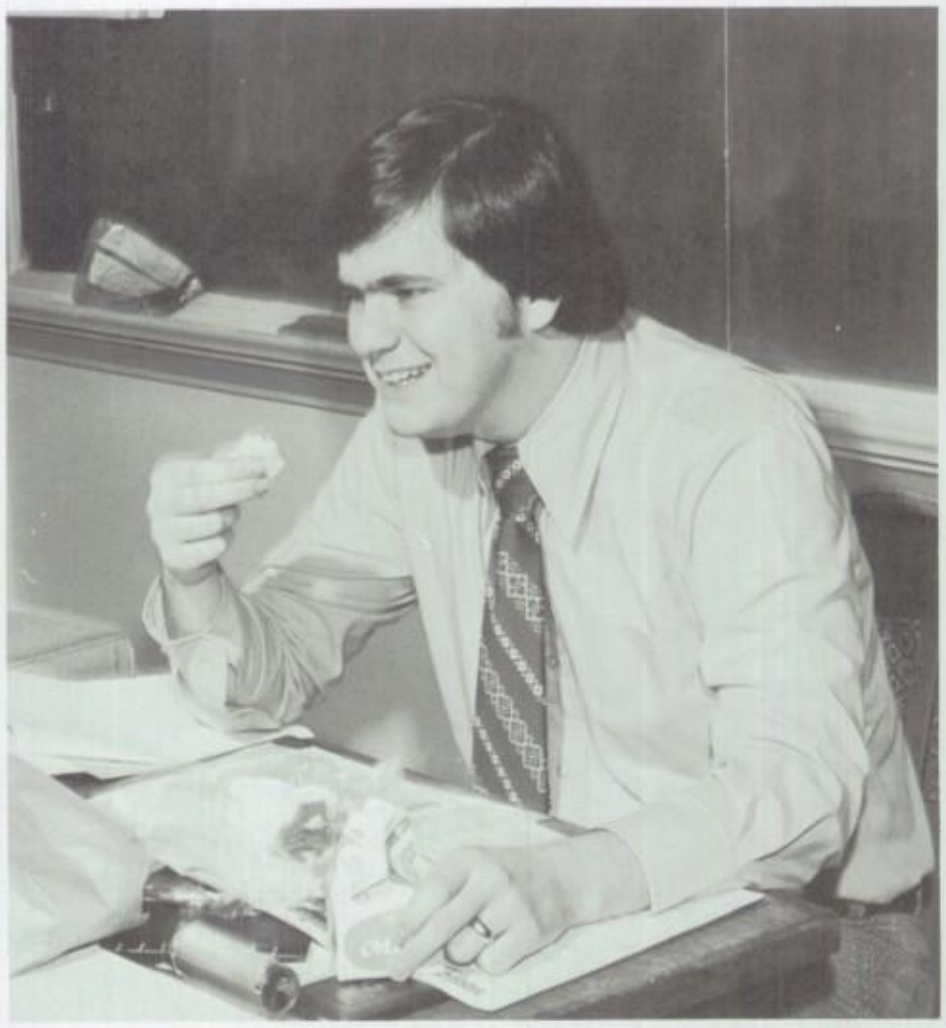
Around The World In 80 Days

Funny how those x-rated films hold the class (and teacher's) attention.
—Mr. Pristas

Good start Rhonda, now just figure out cause and effect.—Mr. Eash

You know, don't you, that I can always change your grade.—Mr. Horne

Where else do you find a "garbage head" but in third lunch?



Hurry, whoever finishes the essay first gets the remainder of my lunch.—Mr. Kirkwood

Do you people really believe my head could fit in that circle?—Mr. Matthews

On The Other Side Of The Breezeway . . .

I don't know what it does, but it sure looks sophisticated.—Mr. Burnworth

Russ, my thumb's in there, Russ, Russ!—Mr. Grillo

And I didn't even trace it!—Mr. Rummel

He doesn't REALLY think that's art work, does he?—Mr. Kososki

Well Don, I don't know, we haven't used wooden wheels for a while now. —Mr. McFeaters

Rail-splinting was once a prominent profession. It was done with gluts (wooden wedges) stuck by a huge hammer (beetle) to make fence railing.

American sleighs were works of art. Their fragile grace was as efficient as it was a delight to the eye. Many were used as racers.

Though the privy has now claimed the name, "Outhouse" was once the name for any added outbuilding on early American farms. The early privy had a Crescent (feminine) and a Sun (Masculine) to designate MEN and WOMEN. Other outhouses were the overhang wash house, the well house, the spring house, butchering house, and the farm forge barn.

This bunch of girls could be but one thing, the "fantastic" Senior High Chorus.

These "piano pickers", Phyllis Eash, Sandy Rhode, and Patti Smith, are the Senior High Accompianists.

Deanna Good, Julie Eash, and Patty Gindlesperger make up the Ninth Grade Trio.

These members of the Junior High Chorus are future Choir members.

The Seventh Grade Chorus is a good start for seventh graders in the basics of performing music.

Caught you! Lying down on the job are Mary Miller, Valerie Kaltenbaugh and Kim Zimmerman the Eighth Grade Trio.

Jr. High Chorus Accompianists—Patty Gindlesperger and Deanna Good.

Yea Senior Choir Members! Here are 20 good reasons why our Choir is so great.

Jean Lucas, Sandy Rhode, and Melodee Pebley just happen to be the Sophomore Trio.

These talented girls make up the Junior High Chorus.

Singing their way into the hearts of millions, we have Pam Tilley, Cindy Saylor, and Sue Saylor, the Senior Trio.

If you take Jeanne Byer, Amy Cable, and Patty Pipta, put them together you have the Junior Trio.

Yea Steve, you're a barrel of laughs, but let's get to work.

Band officers are John Schmeling, President; Paulene Tresnicky, Secretary-Treasurer; and David Strayer, Vice-President.

Hola Senorita!

Lisa Snyder and Beth Verna are not just a couple of pretty faces; they belong to the PT Teen Advisory Board.

Christmas Dreams

Pat and Sandy take time for pictures that will make wonderful memories.

Making it all come off so smoothly are officers Bill Andrews, Vicki Ravenscraft, Sue Smith and their advisor Mr. Shank.

Oh come on Sally, just one little dance!

The closer you look, the better we look.

Everyone enjoyed the sounds of Hot Gossip.

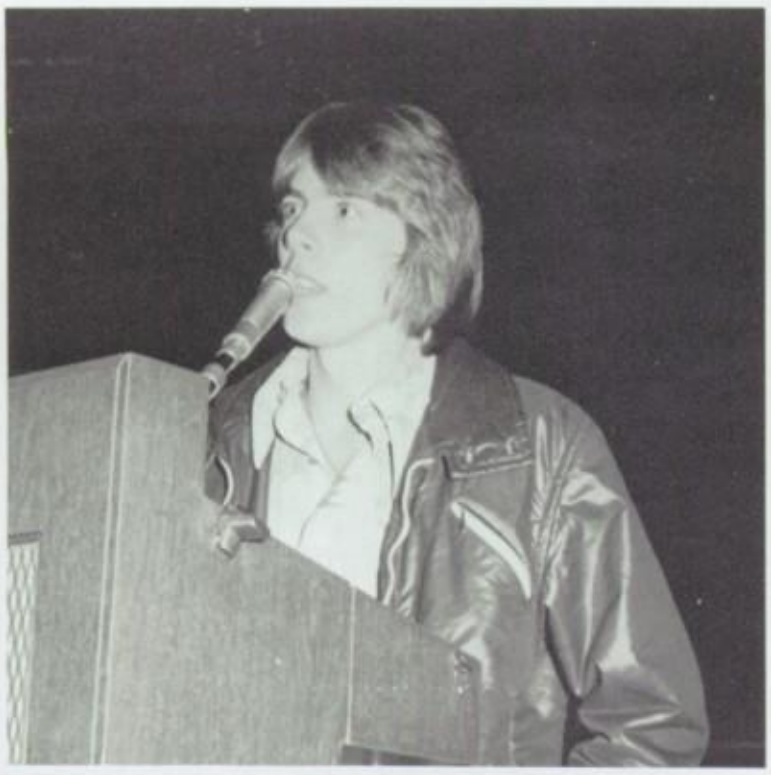
Joy Blough, 1974-75 Homecoming Queen has the honor of crowning Jodi.

Our 1975-76 Homecoming Queen, Jodi Fisher, and her escort, Lew Tresnicky.

Mr. O'Connor presents a Bicentennial flag to Student Council President, Lori Golden.

Homecoming '75

THE QUEEN AND HER COURT—(L-R): Terry May, Princess; Jodi Fisher, Homecoming Queen; and Judy Flick, Princess.



Russ Weaver, Student Council Vice President, served as a great MC at the bonfire.

What's so funny about a big fire? Members of this year's football team watch the bonfire.

Bonfire

The bonfire and the dance afterwards were "scorching" successes.

Coach "Bada" talked highly of our super football team.

It must be nice to get out of school all day just to build a fire. The football team put forth a great effort to build our bonfire.

Looking Good!

All aboard!

The girls tracked on through the 1974-75 Winning Cheer.

No. 1

On November 21, 1975 our CT cheerleaders hosted the 32nd Annual Cheerleading Contest. The hostesses practiced hard and presented their Hello, Good Luck, and the 1974-75 Winning Cheer. Helping the cheerleaders make the night a success were the CT Band, majorettes, flag carriers, and the student body.

Paul, now, you get off that floor right now!

One more time girls.

Thanks, I needed that!

Are you sure you want me to take this?

I didn't know you were so sweet.

Pam gets no respect; everyone in the News Staff pushes her around. They are (Seated): Editor Pam Tilley, Calvin Stayrook, Karla Freeburg, Mary Beatty, and John Schmeling.

This is the only staff where half the people are editors. The Exchange Staff: JoAnne Miller; and Editor Tammy Layton.

It's hard to believe, but in addition to blocking the hall, this motley looking crew is the CONTOWNIAN Staff and actually publishes a weekly newspaper.

Are you sure this is the latest issue of the NEW YORK TIMES? CONTOWNIAN advisor Mr. Paxton and Editor Tony Klimek work hard to keep the paper running smoothly.

Contownian Staff

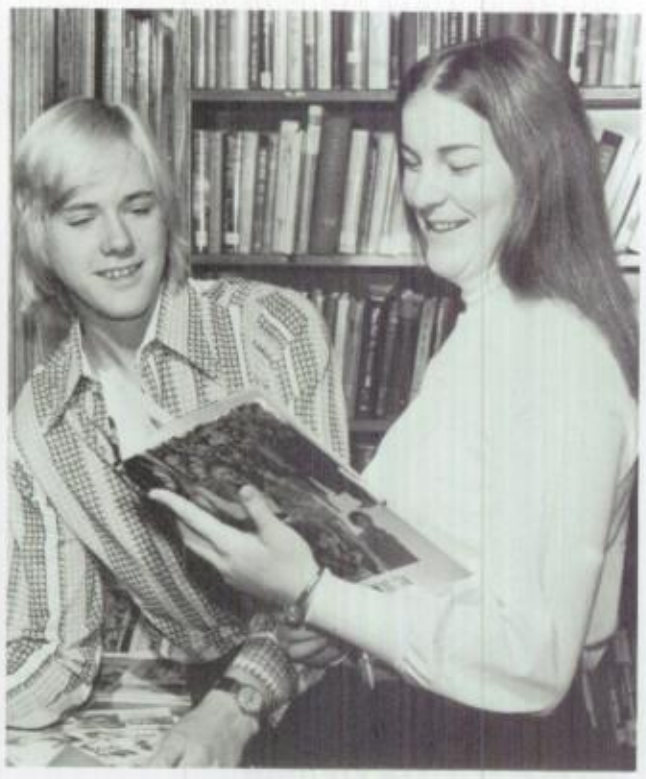
The fastest fingers on a keyboard since Elton John—The ruddy Typing Staff members (L-R): Lori Golden; Thersea Mazzarese; Josie Charnesky; Editor, June Gindlesperger; Jodi Fisher; and Lorraine Sidone.

OK, OK, I'll never complain about your stories again. The Sports Staff members are Dick Cobaugh; Eric Lynam; Editor Mark Saylor; and Gwen Miller.

They're smiling now, but come Friday morning these editors will be too busy trying to get a paper out to take it easy.

Put a crayon in the hand of these innocent looking students and presto—an Artist Cartoon Staff. Members of the staff are Carole Golden; Editor, Mary Holbay; and Don Unger.

Connumach



Editor John Schmeling and Assistant Editor Sue Saylor smile as they plan the 1976 CONNUMACH.

These smiling faces belong to our hard working editors.

These girls make up the Typing staff. Row One: Rosie Teeter, Kathy Pebley and Bonnie Altemus. Row Two: Theresa Mazzarese, Joyce Cortese, Josie Charnesky, and Editor; Jodi Fisher.

Our special thanks to our hard-working advisors: Miss Diane Owatt, Mrs. Carle Allen—assistant, Mr. Jay Volk—business, Mr. Walter Kozoski—art.

(Top-Bottom): Sherry Lavely; Brad Mitchell; Editor, Mary Jo Holbay; Sandy Dipre; and Ron Foreback are the artists who make up the Art Staff.

The Department Staff handles all classroom pictures. Row One: Diane Bent, Paulene Tresnicky, and Beth Verna. Row Two: Robin Saylor; Editor, Tammy Layton, and Cindy Lybarger.

Thank You

The 1976 CONNUMACH staff would like to extend its sincere thanks for the excellent service provided by:

Cover Studios

Josten's American Yearbook Company

School Pictures, Inc.

As I look back over the year, I realize how much hard work, patience, time and effort was provided by so many people to help make our yearbook a success. Heartfelt thanks go to our great advisors Miss Owatt and Mrs. Allen. Nothing could have been achieved without their guidance and dedication. And to Miss Owatt goes a special thanks for all the extra hours of proof reading and the pushing and prodding that brought out the best in us. I would also like to thank our fantastic Editors and entire staff; our yearbook representative Mr. John Mitchell, especially for his help in our crises; the faculty and administration for their year-round cooperation; and Kay Miller and last year's Editors who really helped to start us off on the right foot.

The Making Of A Graduate

Prom 1976
"A New Beginning"

Our smiling prom royalty: Prince Todd Trachock, Princess Valerie Vargo, Queen Brenda Turk, and King Don O'Connor.

"But John, I told my mother I'd be in before 9:00."

Everyone enjoyed the successful prom.

The officers that made it all possible take time out to pose with their dates. Marcia Sleek, Rhonda Crist, Doug Telenko, and Amy Cable.

"We all meet at Burger King after the next dance!"

"Smile, and say Cheese---burger!"

Silent moments, precious moments.

Carnaby provided excellent music.

Student Council Brings Bloodmobile To C.T.A.H.S.

Nuestro Amigo Cosme

A special member of the C.T.A.H.S. student body this year was Cosme del Blanco. Cosme came to us from his home in Tulancingo, Mexico, and spent the first half of the school year with Rodney Kauffman and his family and the second semester in the Tim Redick household. Cosme's smiling face will always be remembered by the many friends he made, especially those in the Spanish 3 and 4 classes.

"Carolyn, this isn't the right script!" Advisor Mr. Salko offers some advice to the student directors Carolyn Mishler and Terri Dovey.

Spring Concert

New talent has been discovered at C.T.A.H.S.! The barber shop quartet starring Wendell Yoder, Tim Redick, Greg Reed, and Tim Jacobs was a feature attraction at this year's spring concert.

Majorettes Bring Home Two Trophies!

The CTAHS majorettes captured the 3rd place trophy at the Johnstown War Memorial Contest and then went on to earn 2nd place honors in the Central Keystone Majorette Contest in Martinsburg. Twirling to "Classical Gas" and featuring Lisa Snyder's spectacular baton toss, the girls made an excellent showing.
